

Pursuit of the Dream: Cars & Jobs in America

The Annie E. Casey Foundation is pleased to make copies of Pursuit of the Dream: Cars & Jobs in America available to advocates, community and faith-based organizations, nonprofit organizations, service providers, policymakers, and others who work on issues affecting low-income families.

Pursuit of the Dream tells the stories of three low-income families and their struggle to find reliable transportation to work.

We would like to know how you anticipate using the documentary in your work and who your viewing audience will be. We also hope you will allow us to contact you in several weeks to gather your impressions of the documentary and assist in our tracking and evaluation of this important outreach tool.

The documentary is 22 minutes in length. Each DVD includes an English and Spanish version. A printed discussion guide is included inside each DVD case.
